MATSG-22

HIGHER HQ MISSION

Training Command, as the Marine Corps proponent for MOS individual-skill training, analyzes, designs, develops, resources, implements, and evaluates standards-based individual training in order to provide combat-capable Marines and Sailors to the operating forces.

MATSG-22 MISSION

Represent the Commanding General, Training Command, in enabling Marine aviation training through Service advocacy and administrative support, while reinforcing Marine Corps values, principles, and competencies, in order to forge future Marine aviators for the Fleet Marine Force.

MATSG-22 COMMANDER'S INTENT

Establish and foster close working relationships across Marine Corps Training Command, Naval Air Training Command, Air Education & Training Command,